Schenklen agrees to talk

Word has just been released so we go to press that Schenklen Industries has recognized the National Farm Workers Association as the sole collective bargaining agent for the growers who are under contract, only the program described elsewhere in this issue will be affected. The beyond activity for FNWA should continue on the increased basis. The growers can be Bau.

Lorman, Miss. State highway police officials say they are in possession of 500 students demonstrating against the University of Mississippi. The students were protesting the presence of the patrological administration and the low wages given to the employees. (26-29 cents an hour.)

The highway patrol was called to it a Chancery Court judge at Nolichucky has issued a temporary injunction prohibiting marches or demonstrations in Lorman.

Howard Romacole of the Southern Student Association Committee informed us this morning that he had been in contact with the demonstrators urging them to change their plans andNegative sentiment toward civil rights activity by black students.

New York, N.Y.: SDS in New York City is mobilizing characters to wait at the door of Nat Young's office at the Stone House YMCA in Harlem. The students are planning, through tactics used in other cities, to enter the office and demand the release of Nat Young.

The 76 workers primarily Puerto Rican, were fired after they attempted to organize a union. Employees of several predominantly white, non-unionized, and elementary establishments are not protected by any national, state, or local laws. Many of them have been hounded out of a minimum and wage and labor standards.

Milwaukee, Wis.: On Friday, April 11, the first Midwestern region against the war in Vietnam will be sponsored by the Milwaukee SDS chapter. The program is part of a national student campaign called American Students Against the War in Vietnam. Some of the sponsors of the national effort include Robert Lawrence, Lawrence Ferlinghetti.

Schenklen Industries, Inc., chairman of the board of directors, will be present when the announcement is made.

The company has not won a fair hearing and a wage increase in the July contract. The company has not been able to meet the demand for a fair hearing and a wage increase. The company has not been able to meet the demand for a fair hearing and a wage increase.

Organizational

- Appointment of a national fund raisers immediately. (J. Shore)
- Chapter (fund-raising group, state local)
- Distribution of responsibility for classification of all local chapters. (J. Shore)
- Convention: proposal for August; convention; planning, etc.
- Staff: appointment of new chapter, including K. McGee
- Recommendations from the National Education Project
- Other
- Motion on electoral position politics (Booth)
- Proposal for creation of District (unofficial) regional office (to be developed beyond present regions (K. McGehee)

Union organizing at Duke by Harry Boyte and Sara Evans

In the spring of 1965 several seniors at Duke University in Durham, N.C. were trying to find help with the help of several students from Duke SDS formed an em- ployers who were running a computer that was associated with the American Student Movement for Civil Rights in Durham and esclavado to organize as a union.

The program is part of a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society. Students for a Democratic Society is a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society. Students for a Democratic Society is a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society.

The students at Duke University in Durham, N.C. were trying to find help with the help of several students from Duke SDS formed an em- ployers who were running a computer that was associated with the American Student Movement for Civil Rights in Durham and esclavado to organize as a union.

The program is part of a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society. Students for a Democratic Society is a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society.

The students at Duke University in Durham, N.C. were trying to find help with the help of several students from Duke SDS formed an em- ployers who were running a computer that was associated with the American Student Movement for Civil Rights in Durham and esclavado to organize as a union.

The program is part of a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society. Students for a Democratic Society is a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society.

The students at Duke University in Durham, N.C. were trying to find help with the help of several students from Duke SDS formed an em- ployers who were running a computer that was associated with the American Student Movement for Civil Rights in Durham and esclavado to organize as a union.

The program is part of a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society. Students for a Democratic Society is a national student movement called Students for a Democratic Society.

The students at Duke University in Durham, N.C. were trying to find help with the help of several students from Duke SDS formed an em- ployers who were running a computer that was associated with the American Student Movement for Civil Rights in Durham and esclavado to organize as a union.
Imperialism

Some people find that word hard to take. It is as if to be called an imperialist was a sin—or a crime. Yet imperialism is a time-honored habit of great and energetic powers. We may not find it an admirable habit; but we can understand it. The spread of Western culture is an important part of the race's history, in the 1900s, it was an especially virulent strain. But it is a fact that we have an empire that is administered, run, and financed by the United States. Those who are cynical should look into the reports of the big banks, the sugar companies, the mining industry, international oil. More than million people in the world owe their lives to the United States. Yet, as the United States expands its influence, the benefits are not distributed equally. Some regions gain more than others. But the goal of expanding influence is not just for the United States. It is for the benefit of all mankind.

Furthermore, the United States is often criticized for its treatment of Asian countries. The United States has a history of imperialist policies, and its actions have had a significant impact on the region. The United States has played a role in the partition of Korea, the occupation of the Philippines, and的支持 of the Chinese Nationalists. These actions have had long-lasting consequences, and the United States has had to deal with the consequences of its actions.

The United States has also been criticized for its treatment of Native Americans. The United States has a history of imperialism towards Native Americans, and its actions have had a significant impact on the region. The United States has played a role in the displacement of Native Americans, and its actions have had long-lasting consequences. These actions have had to deal with the consequences of its actions.

Conclusion

In conclusion, imperialism is a complex and multifaceted phenomenon. It is a habit of great and energetic powers, and it is a fact that we have an empire that is administered, run, and financed by the United States. The United States has a history of imperialist policies, and its actions have had a significant impact on the region. The United States has played a role in the partition of Korea, the occupation of the Philippines, and supports of the Chinese Nationalists. These actions have had long-lasting consequences, and the United States has had to deal with the consequences of its actions. The United States has also been criticized for its treatment of Native Americans. The United States has a history of imperialism towards Native Americans, and its actions have had a significant impact on the region. The United States has played a role in the displacement of Native Americans, and its actions have had long-lasting consequences. These actions have had to deal with the consequences of its actions.
Connor, we can learn something about Ngo Dinh Diem and Nguyen Cao Ky. What we can see is that both of them, like other authoritarian leaders, have used violence to achieve their goals. White Americans have an unparalleled opportunity to learn first-hand about the origins of this type of violence. In the United States, we are often told that the rich and powerful are above the law, and that violence is a last resort. But in the case of Diem and Ky, the violence was used as a matter of routine. In order to maintain their power, they engaged in a brutal and bloodless coup that ultimately led to the fall of the regime. The fact that we have to look elsewhere to understand the nature of this violence highlights the need for a more comprehensive approach to the study of authoritarian regimes. We cannot ignore the lessons of the past if we want to avoid similar outcomes in the future.

But just as important is the second danger, which is that our insistence on maintaining the Cold War status quo limits—If it does not nearly obliterate the Cold War. The United States, because it is a superpower, can afford to ignore the threats that arise from less powerful states. But for many of the other countries involved, the stakes are much higher. The fact that the United States can afford to ignore the threats of nuclear proliferation and terrorism is a luxury that many countries in the world cannot afford. The United States has a responsibility to help stabilize the world, and it is up to us to ensure that we do not take this responsibility lightly.

Understanding the causes of violence
May I make it absolutely clear that I am no advocate of violence: when I observed in my speech at Washington last November that "mobs are roused and how several days" unless the global power system changes. I did not make this easy prophecy with delusion, but with a lump in my throat and tears in my eyes. Many Americans may be stunned by what I am saying, but I believe that we have reached a critical moment in our history. We cannot afford to ignore the signs of growing unrest and violence. We need to act now to prevent further bloodshed and destruction. Only then can we begin to build a more peaceful and just world. And this is why we must take the lessons of the past seriously and apply them to the present.

In conclusion, I urge all of you to consider the dangers of violence and to work towards a world where peace and cooperation are the norms. We can do this by supporting democratic institutions, promoting economic development, and working to resolve conflicts through dialogue and negotiation. Let us not forget the lessons of the past, and let us strive to create a world where violence is no longer necessary.
NAC MINUTES

New Left Notes

NAC members present at the April 3 meeting were Paul Booth, Joyce Marcus, Nancy Lessin and Ralph Humber. No other members attended.

Finances. We are even worse off than last week - several companies are threatening to pull out unless we can pay them more promptly. This is one of the primary reasons why the New Left Notes is not in the position to fully support the NAC.

Robbery. Four young people were snatched off the street last week by four men who smashed a car window, forced the occupants out, robbed them, and then fled.

The NAC's financial situation remains critical. We must find a way to increase our income and reduce our expenses.

Contributions. The first contributions from the National Guardian are due today. The ad was well placed.

Booth (continued from page 1)

sions (false) and had signed papers for his Viet Cong (false). It is true, however, that the Russell would want to get a complete documentation of SDS, includ- ing some copier.

Another Justice Dept. investigation of SDS, announced by Attorney General John Mitchell last week, has apparently been blocked. That one was as- signed to the Internal Security Divi- sion; reporters have been informed that recent phone calls to the Justice Dept. have been ignored by that division.

Technical notes. Advertisements are in black and white for a trustworthy SDS member with electronic equipment who could identify and neutralize illegal wiretaps. The ad is on the front page of the New Left Notes.

Kendall's letter will be read by SDS at the next meeting of the National Office. Write to department 015, 2600 California Ave., Chicago 60615.

Viet Report. The three recent issues of Viet Report are available in bulk to chapters from the National Office. Vol. 1, No. 4 includes reports on the Japanese war and the war, a piece by McDermott on Chinese policy, and Vietnam. T. T. Nguyen's report from Tom Hoyt and Stragh- ton Lundy on their trip, an article by Frank J. C. Foote on the war, an article on "presidential war," and a May Day letter toasting the Party, housing and urban policy. Volume 2 concludes with an elaborate analysis by Martin Navratil of Israeli-Moslem relations in the Middle East, the political agenda of the NLF, and a summary of General 1. Amend's program for the elections.

Application to mail at Second Class postage rates to all subscribers at 1101 E. 53rd St., Chicago, Ill. 60637.

New Left Notes

Published weekly by Students for a Democratic Society, 1101 E. 53rd St., Chicago, Ill. 60637. Phone: (312) 927-9096. Application to mail at second-class postage rates is pending at the Post Office Department. All letters are signed articles are the responsibility of the editor. Unsigned articles are the responsibility of the author.

Students for a Democratic Society

Carl Oglesby, president; Jeffrey Stave, vice-president; and Paul Booth, national secretary.

Vol. 1, No. 12

April 3, 1968

electoral politics

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

No one in the New Left is not in the position for a full discussion of the merits of various electoral strategies. We believe the participation of the SDS is crucial to the future of the movement and to the political success of the party. We believe that the electoral campaign of the SDS in 1964 was not a failure but a success in demonstrating the possibility of a radical political party. We believe that the political activity of the SDS can be very productive. The Julian Bond campaign, the Black Panther Party, the MFDP, the NLF's activity in the city council level and RAA efforts raise issues, organize people, and reveal the strength of the SDS. We believe that the츠팰collapse of the opposition is an end result of the persistence of the SDS.

Ad. Clark Kissinger talked to Julian Bond and also to Paul Booth for the New York Review of Books after the election. His favorite details yet to be ironed out.

Tax matters. We are almost ready to file the returns of forms required by the IRS for the 1967-68 tax year. If you can help us in any way, please contact the NAC.

San Diego proposal

Re: Letter in issue 19 from the San Diego steering committee calling for the inclusion of the imprisoned Soviet dissidents in their awareness and Daniel.

This call to action reminds us of our very serious condition. Who is it that forces us to gather itself together to try to maintain and promote our awareness of the imprisonment of the SDS leaders, and the imprisonment of the dissidents. We need to try and obtain the release of the imprisoned dissidents. The time is now to act on this chapter in a fact that this is the way the world is moving across to us as a serious undertaking.

I'd like to see writers, artists, teachers, etc. imprisoned in any country, I personally do not rave for the lack of civil lib- erties in the Soviet Union today. I think most people in SDS agree with this (see 99.99% of the people have voted for the NLF on this). My question is, can we organize an American Communities !

San Diego proposal.

California

San Diego, April 21st, the reception of the imprisoned Soviet dissidents.

This call to action reminds me of my number of serious questions: Who is it that forces us to gather itself together to try to maintain and promote our awareness of the imprisonment of the SDS leaders, and the imprisonment of the dissidents. We need to try and obtain the release of the imprisoned dissidents. The time is now to act on this chapter in a fact that this is the way the world is moving across to us as a serious undertaking.

I'd like to see writers, artists, teachers, etc. imprisoned in any country, I personally do not rave for the lack of civil lib- erties in the Soviet Union today. I think most people in SDS agree with this (see 99.99% of the people have voted for the NLF on this). My question is, can we organize an American Communities !

San Diego proposal.

California

San Diego, April 21st, the reception of the imprisoned Soviet dissidents.

This call to action reminds me of my number of serious questions: Who is it that forces us to gather itself together to try to maintain and promote our awareness of the imprisonment of the SDS leaders, and the imprisonment of the dissidents. We need to try and obtain the release of the imprisoned dissidents. The time is now to act on this chapter in a fact that this is the way the world is moving across to us as a serious undertaking.

I'd like to see writers, artists, teachers, etc. imprisoned in any country, I personally do not rave for the lack of civil lib- erties in the Soviet Union today. I think most people in SDS agree with this (see 99.99% of the people have voted for the NLF on this). My question is, can we organize an American Communities !